REPORT

With audience of 325 members (including staff and students), the event commenced with welcome note by Mrs. Sujatha, Assistant HoD of IT and as in Indian Tradition we take the name of god before starting anything, the event was started with the prayer song by P.Yazhini from III YR AGRI DEPT followed by lamp lighting. The event then kick started with a short speech by our Principal Dr.R.Saravanan about women's day.

It is in this generation's reach to transform gender relations, to empower women and girls and humanity as a whole. Faculty and students has celebrated Women's Day on March 8, a day that honors the achievements and calls attention to the rights of women. The guest Speaker Dr.P.T.V. BHUVANESHWARI, Director, Centre for IoT, Anna University caught up themselves in the celebration with great enthusiasm and spoke about balance between career and family. She adds that without a family support a women can't achieve success, also addressed that girls should know their right to defend themselves to be careful against crimes against women. She emphasized that the time to uphold women's achievements, recognize challenges and focus greater attention on women's rights and gender equality to mobilize all people to do their best. We should celebrate the social, economic, cultural, and political achievements of women.

Be it any field, ladies have never left any stone unturned to prove themselves. Our Managing Trustee Ms. Kanishka Reddy also emphasized on the fact that a woman is the epitome of tenderness, care, and wisdom and that we should love and value them. A woman should never compromise with her individuality and strive to hone her skills. The program proceeded with few cultural programs. A lot of events and games were also organized to commemorate WOMENHOOD as a part of which all the female faculty and students who won were also bestowed with prizes.

The vote of thanks was delivered by Mrs. Muthuselvi, Assistant Professor of Mechanical department. The national anthem marked the end of the successful event. The celebration ended with a great triumph.
